

Oxford Cambridge Bletchley Park

July 2016: The city of Oxford dates from the 8th century and is home to the oldest English-speaking University in the world. The Eagle and Child Pub was a favorite of J.R.R. Tolkien and CS Lewis.

Cambridge is noted for its many famous alumni including Sir Isaac Newton, Bertrand Russell and writers such as John Milton, Lord Byron and Lewis Carroll. Cambridge leads the world in Nobel Prizes winners.

Setting Midway between Oxford and Cambridge is Bletchley Park. Home to WW2's code breakers and subject of the film THE IMITATION GAME.

Oxford Carfax Tower

Oxford Sheldonian Theatre

Oxford Brasenose College

Oxford the Bird and the Baby

Oxford Alice's Shop

Cambridge

Cambridge King's College

Cambridge Mathematical Bridge

Cambridge Rowing

Bletchley Park Mansion

Turing Welchman Bombe

Turing's Office